

Overview:

Sanctuary for Families is New York's leading service provider and advocate for survivors of domestic violence, sex trafficking, and related forms of gender violence. Every year, Sanctuary empowers thousands of adults and children to move from fear and abuse to safety and stability, transforming lives through a comprehensive range of services. Last year, we served nearly 15,000 adults and children through legal and clinical services, economic empowerment support, shelter and programming for children and youth.

Sanctuary for Families is currently seeking math tutors to volunteer with our After-School Enrichment Program (ASEP). ASEP is intended for teens ages 13-21 who are at risk of dropping or failing out of school. Adolescents who have witnessed or experienced domestic violence or teen dating violence face specific obstacles to their academic and personal success. ASEP addresses the barriers through targeted academic, social, and emotional supportive programming:

- Academic Support and Tutoring
- Creative Arts
- Life Skills Development
- Clinical Support (Individual and Group Counseling)
- Field Trips
- Civic Engagement and Leadership

Tutors who have experience with middle and high school level math are needed on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday afternoons from 3:30-5pm.

Responsibilities:

- Assist teens with homework assignments
- Help improve skills in identified areas of need
- Develop activities and practice sets in areas where teens are struggling academically

Qualifications:

- Experience working with adolescents
- Knowledge of middle and high school level math
- Respect for confidentiality
- Patience and understanding
- Available once a week on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday afternoons from 3:30-5pm
- Spanish-fluency a plus

How to Apply:

Please fill out a Volunteer Application on our website, specifying your interest and qualifications for this position: www.sanctuaryforfamilies.org/volunteer.

For more information on this and other volunteer opportunities, visit our website!