CAP 2 Externship Posting:

Sanctuary for Families, New York's largest service provider for survivors of gender-based violence, seeks law student advocates for a spring 2020 externship with the Campus Advocates Project. The Campus Advocates Project offers free legal services to survivors of intimate partner violence, sexual violence, and other forms of gender-based violence including stalking and cyber sexual abuse. Law student advocates will be trained to assist survivors with advocacy and representation within the Title IX system, Criminal Justice System, and Family Court. Responsibilities may include: reviewing and preserving evidence, reviewing and editing clients' narrative statements, assisting in client preparation for hearings and/or other legal proceedings, accompanying clients to meetings with law enforcement and/or legal proceedings, reviewing lengthy records and/or written reports, communicating with members of Public Safety, and assisting clients in filing for Family Court orders of protection.

Requirements: Applicants must have completed training with the Courtroom Advocates Project and have attended/completed at least one (1) CAP day.

If interested, please submit a cover letter and resume to campusadvocates@sffny.org.
